Where There's Hope

Nashville (Tenn.) Banner editorial printed in Human Events Jan. 25, 1964

By federal budgetary standards, a half-million dollars is small change, but $500,000 saved is a step in the right direction: The small Arkansas town of Hope, at the behest of a newspaper editor, has started a campaign to kill plans for a new post office building.

It is hoped that enough signatures will be gathered to get the district's congressman to move toward having the appropriation rescinded.

This community has precedent for such action. The town has refused to spend a $250,000 federal grant for a paving project.

To paraphrase an old saying, "Where there's Hope there's..."

Letters to Editor

Regarding Above Editorial Editor The Star, Human Events is the name of the magazine and enclosed is the page of the January 25 issue containing the reference to your excellent stand against wasteful government spending.

Incidentally, there is a small town called Italy near Dallas which was severely damaged by a tornado a couple of years ago. The mayor of Italy respectfully declined any federal "disaster" funds. We were very proud of that little town.

And we're proud of Hope. J. MCCARTHY

Jr. Auxiliary Visited by Official

Miss Martha Wise of Warren, Arkansas, Executive Secretary of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries, met with the Hope Chapter of Junior Auxiliary Wednesday for her annual inspection visit.

The Executive Board met with Miss Wise in the home of the President, Mrs. E. P. Young, Jr., at which time the programs and projects of the Auxiliary were evaluated. Miss Wise discussed plans for the National Convention to be held in Hot Springs in May.

Following the board meeting, the entire chapter met for a luncheon at the Heritage House where Miss Wise was introduced to the seven new members of the Auxiliary who have recently completed their provisional training and have been accepted to active membership. Those who have completed the training are Mrs. Floyd Leverett, Mrs. Talbot Field, Jr., Mrs. Gordon Bayless, Mrs. Clyde Monts, Mrs. Al Graves, Mrs. Thomas E. Hays, Jr. and Mrs. G. D. Royston, Jr.

At a business meeting following the luncheon, the chapter voted to participate in the Festival of Arts to be held in May. The chapter also voted to sponsor a series of Musical Films to be shown at the Seanger Theatre during the next ten weeks. The first musical will be "Showboat" to be seen next Tuesday and Wednesday. Other films will be Carousel, Annie Get Your Gun, The Merry Widow, and The Music Man. Proceeds from the advance sale of tickets will be used for the Auxiliary projects.

Thomas Lavender Dies in Kansas

Thomas A. Lavender, 48, died Wednesday at Abilene, Kansas. Survivors include his wife, two children, his mother, Mrs. T. A. Lavender of Hope, two brothers, J. Leland Lavender of Hope and Ellis Lavender of Dallas.

Those Who Ordered 'The Torch Is Passed' Advised to Pick Up Their Books Now

Residents of Hope, Hempstead and area who ordered, "The Torch Is Passed," a book on the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy, are advised to pick up their book as soon as possible.

Many persons who didn't order now want a copy of the book. If those who did order don't pick up their copy within a reasonable length of time the Star will sell them to those who didn't order one. Please call for your copy today.

Neutralize Asia Says DeGaulle Defensively

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle today advocated the neutralization of Southeast Asia and said relations with Red China are necessary to achieve it.

Speaking to a crowded news conference, De Gaulle thus defended his decision earlier this week to establish diplomatic relations with the Chinese Communist regime.

He declined to comment on the two-Chinas issue — that is recognizing both the Chinese Communist and Nationalist regimes.

In a news statement which took him more than an hour and a half to read he spent only about five minutes on the Chinese issue.

1st Assembly to Open New Church Sun.

First Assembly of God will open its new Sanctuary and Educational Building with special ceremonies, Sunday, Feb. 2, at 9:30 a.m. Pastor B. J. Willhite will lead the congregation into the beautiful new auditorium after a short service at the front entrance of the church.

First Assembly of God, formerly called Hope Gospel Tabernacle, was established in 1935, with Rev. Phinias Lewis as pastor. Growth of the church was rapid, during those first years, and it was not long until Hope Gospel Tabernacle came to be one of the leading churches in Hope.

The building which the church occupied for so many years was formerly a skating rink.

About four years ago, "the church, under the leadership of its pastor, the Rev. W. C. Land, decided to build a new edifice. An architect was hired and plans were presented, while the building fund grew.

However, after considerable planning and consultation with the architect they were not able to arrive at just the right plan. Meanwhile, the Rev. Mr. Land was called to a pastorate in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he is now pastoring Oakland Park, Assembly of God.

Rev. B. J. Willhite was called by the church Feb. 24, 1963, and began, immediately with plans for a new building. A new architect, (Daniel Perkins, of Baytown, Texas) was hired, a floor plan was presented to him, and it was not long until the building began to take shape, with Eugene Ferguson as the foreman in charge of construction.

Rev. Mr. Willhite, who himself, has experience as a building contractor, was an almost constant over-seer of the work. Working closely with the building committee, which was composed of: the late S. Z. "Buster" Barwick, A. B. Mhoon, Guy E. Basye, Sam Stroud, Olin Whitely, E. W. Davis, T. C. Cranford, Eugene Ferguson, Horace Billings, and Earl Thompson, were a number of business houses in Hope, which extended to the church every consideration.

Formal dedication services will be held Sunday afternoon, Feb. 16, at 2:30, with Rev. Bert Webb, Assistant General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God, and former pastor of the church, officiating.

Friends of the church are invited to attend the church at anytime, but an open house will be held Sunday, Feb. 16, 4:00-6:00, at which time guided tours of the building will be conducted.

Sincerely,
JIMMIE GRIFFIN
Candidate for Re-Election to Office of Sheriff & Collector
Hempstead County, Ark.

Henry Gunter, 67, Dies Thursday at Home of Sister

Henry Gunter, 67, son of the late James H. and Fannie W. Gunter, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ruth Johnston, 707 East Division, Hope, Thursday at 8:30 p.m.

He is survived by four brothers: W. E. of McNeil, Alfred of Hope, Frank and John of Atlanta, Texas; three sisters, Mrs. Tom Jackson and Mrs. Ruth Johnston of Hope and Mrs. J. A. England of Texarkana. He was a member of the College Hill Baptist Church.

He will be buried in Shiloh Cemetery at Waldo. Smith Burial Association at Stamps is in charge of arrangements.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Jinks, 58, former postmaster at Piggott, Ark., was named special assistant to the postmaster general for community programs Thursday.

He had been head of the Postmasters and Rural Appointment Division of the Post Office Department.

Jinks, postmaster at Piggott for 10 years, became head of the PRAD division in 1961.

Star Editor Televised for Channel 3 News

KTBS TELEVISION, CHANNEL 3, SHREVEPORT, sent a camera crew to Hope this morning for a filmed interview with Alex. H. Washburn, editor and publisher of Hope Star, on the Hope Post Office controversy.

and Laurence West, news editor of KTBS.

THE FILM WILL BE SHOWN ON CHANNEL 3 TONIGHT (Friday) at either the 6 or 10 p.m. newscasts, depending on the time of the camera crew's return to Shreveport. They had to meet another commitment at Homer, La., before returning to KTBS. Advocates of the post office project were asked to appear on the program but declined.

Satellite Off Course 600 Miles

By RALPH DIGHTON

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Space scientists reamed the off-course camera-carrying Ranger 6 by remote control early today and later said "we probably will hit the moon."

Dr. William Pickering, director of Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which is controlling the flight, said "the midcourse correction seemed normal."

"Everything continues to look very good," said Pickering. "On the basis of information radioed back by the spacecraft, I can say that we probably will hit the moon."

Signals pointing the spacecraft dead center at the moon and igniting its small booster rocket were flashed 101,000 miles across space at 12:30 a.m., almost 17 hours after the launching at Cape Kennedy, Fla.

At 1 a.m., officials announced that the signals had been received by the spacecraft and that the 50-pound-thrust booster rocket had ignited.

Plans called for this to increase the spacecraft's 4,343-mile-an-hour speed by 92 m.p.h. and thus pull the trajectory toward the center of the moon.

Prior to the maneuver, Ranger 6 was on a course that would have missed the moon by 600 miles.

Ranger 6 carried six television cameras designed to snap up to 3,000 closeup pictures of the moon in the final 10 minutes of its flight.

These would be the closest pictures yet taken of the moon's surface. The Soviet Lunik 3 photographed the back side of the moon in 1959, but from an altitude of 4,000 miles.

Earthbound telescopes have been unable to see even objects as large as aircraft carriers on the moon. Pictures taken by Ranger's cameras in the last few seconds before impact should distinguish objects as small as a card table.

Such fine detail would give scientists a better idea of the lunar surface where American astronauts may land by the end of this decade.

Laboratory officials said Ranger 6 would coast through space until early Sunday.

About 65 hours after launch, the spacecraft will be ordered to train its television cameras on the moon's surface. In the final 10 minutes before impact, the six cameras will begin snapping pictures at the rate of about 300 a minute.

Laboratory officials said they hope to release some of the photographs within 14 hours.

At least 10 priests and civic leaders in the "Little Italy" district on the city's East Side were jeered when they attempted to calm the demonstrators.

Two Negro men and four photographers were beaten before relative quiet was restored in the area Thursday.

The violence erupted in an area near a grade school picketed by integrationists the past several days.

The civil rights groups sought more complete integration of 800 Negro pupils transported by bus from overcrowded Hazel-dell School to three schools in the East Side area. Parents of some white children objected.

About 200 women and children on relief picketed officials at Chicago in protest of recent relief cuts. The pickets said they do not have enough to eat.

Two women fainted during the demonstrations and the Rev. Henry Mitchell, organizer of the march, said they were hungry. Most of the demonstrators were Negroes.

Police Clubs Quell Riots in Cleveland

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police using billy clubs and assisted by officers on horseback turned back an unruly crowd of more than 400 white persons during Cleveland's worst racial disorder in recent years.

At least 10 priests and civic leaders in the "Little Italy" district on the city's East Side were jeered when they attempted to calm the demonstrators.

Two women fainted during the demonstrations and the Rev. Henry Mitchell, organizer of the march, said they were hungry. Most of the demonstrators were Negroes.

Fifty of the women and children sat in at the State of Illinois building while the rest trooped a block to the City Hall, chanting: "We want food. We want jobs."

In New York, final plans were made for a one-day boycott of the nation's largest public school system. The boycott Monday will be to protest segregation in some classes.

In Alabama, the state Board of Education ordered the immediate closing of previously white Tuskegee High School, where only 12 Negroes now attend classes.

The 250 white pupils who went to the school before it was desegregated under court order refused to go to classes with the Negroes. They enrolled in a new private school across the street or transferred to other high schools.

The Alabama board also adopted a rule requiring approval of a local school board and the state board before any nonresident pupil can be enrolled in any public school in the state. This rule would hit hardest at areas near military installations.

Demonstrations against segregated facilities were discontinued temporarily in Atlanta, where nearly 300 arrests were made in a five-day period.

Elsewhere on the racial scene:

Hattiesburg, Miss. — A minister was fined and given a 30-day jail sentence on a charge of disobeying an officer during a civil rights demonstration.

Ann Arbor, Mich. — A barber was charged with violating Michigan's equal accommodations law by allegedly refusing to cut a Negro's hair.

Priority Promised White River Job

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus told an East Arkansas delegation Thursday that the White River Backwater watershed project planned phase would be given high priority.

The project is one of 55 pending in the state, said Ewing W. Kinkead, executive director of the state Soil and Water Conservation Commission.

He said about 150,000 acres in Monroe, Desha and Phillips counties would be drained.

Faubus has given a $70,000 state check to William B. Davey, state conservationist with the federal conservation agency, to be used to hurry planning of the watershed projects.

Kinkead said Arkansas ranked third in the nation in land conservation and watershed projects.

Texarkana Woman Charged in Slaying

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Marjorie Henderson, 40, was charged Thursday with first-degree murder in the death of her husband, W. G. Henderson, 47.

He was shot once in the stomach and twice in the left arm with a .38 caliber pistol Wednesday at their home in Texarkana.

Mrs. Henderson is free on 10,000 bond. Her arraignment is set for Feb. 10.

Things Confused at This Hospital

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — No wonder things seem confused in the nursery at Fitzsimons General Hospital.

Army Maj. Elva York is a nurse there. So is her twin sister Maj. Elta York.

Newborn in the nursery are Betty and Belinda York, twin daughters of Sgt. and Mrs. Gordon L. York. This family and the nurses are unrelated.

U.S. Ready to Send Men to Cyprus

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States informed Britain, Greece and Turkey today that it is prepared to contribute troops to a peace-keeping force in Cyprus if they will agree to terms for an attempt at settlement of the basic Cypriot political crisis.

U.S. officials said the total proposed force, which would be drawn from several NATO countries, should be about 10,000 men — of which the U.S. contingent would be between 1,000 and 2,000.

Some officials said the U.S. contribution would be around battalion size.

But informants said there is no agreement yet on the package proposed by the United States. If it is not accepted the deal is off, officials said.

Lawyers Abandon Beware Concept

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three speakers told the Arkansas Bar Association Thursday American law has abandoned the caveat emptor—"let the buyer beware"—concept and embraced a "let the manufacturer beware" philosophy.

Association members attending the mid-year meeting at Little Rock were told that products liability is the most rapidly expanding area of personal injury law.

The speakers were Dr. Robert A. Leflar, professor of law at the University of Arkansas; Melvin I. Friedman of Albany, N.Y.; and Thomas F. Lambert Jr. of Boston, all considered authorities in the field.

Their talks were principally technical. Products liability, the responsibility of a manufacturer for the safety of the consumer, is the theme of the meeting, which ends today.

Silents at Prescott on Saturday

Saturday night, February 1, is the big night for the annual March of Dimes show at the Prescott gymnasium with the feature attraction, once more, being the Little Rock Silents and the Prescott Independents.

Wants Bill to Meet Cotton Competition

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to enact legislation to enable U.S. cotton to meet competition of foreign cotton and man-made fibers.

He said in a special farm message that the present program, by providing a two-price system for the fiber crop, meets the needs of neither the grower, the handler, the cotton mill nor the consumer. As it is now, foreign cotton is cheaper and foreign mills can buy American cotton more cheaply than can domestic mills.

This is because a grower price support program holds U.S. cotton above world price levels and above some man-made fibers. But foreign buyers are able to buy U.S. cotton at the world price through operation of a government export subsidy.

Johnson said several legislative proposals are now pending before Congress to deal with this problem. One, referred to as the Cooley Bill, has been passed by the House. Another has been introduced in the Senate by Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga.

An administration spokesman said that either measure would meet the goals of the President. Johnson said the cotton legislation should (1) make cotton more competitive with other fibers and eliminate the inequity of the present two-price system; (2) make it possible for growers who desire to do so to produce cotton at world prices, without any subsidy, on a basis that will not add to U.S. stocks; and (3) maintain the income of cotton growers while reducing excessive carryover stocks.

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson sends a special farm message to Congress today. He is expected to call for new programs aimed at reducing rural poverty and bolstering the incomes of producers of cotton.

Presbyterian Recognition Day Sunday

Deacon Recognition Day will be observed at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. The deacons will meet in the Narthex at 10:55 and go into the Sanctuary in a group.

A special feature of the service will be the installation of the deacons who were recently elected by the congregation. These include Duffie Booth, Thel Joplin, Thomas McLarty, Binford McKee, Clifton Stewart and Crit Stuart, Jr.

Four elders will serve as ushers Sunday morning to relieve the deacons of this responsibility — McKee Andrews, Gordon Bayless, Haskell Jones and John B. Lowe.

Births

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Lee Hyatt, Millington, Tenn., announce the arrival of their first child on Thursday, January 30 in Memphis. The baby is a 7½ lb. boy and he has been named John Martin. Grandparents are Mrs. B. C. Hyatt of Hope and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bass of North Little Rock.

Coming and Going

On Thursday and Friday KXAR staff members went to El Dorado to take the test for a radio operators license.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce DeBord of Dallas were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Walters and Beverly.

Dr. Frank Padberg of Little Rock was the overnight guest of Luther Hollamon Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Arnett have recently returned from a visit with their daughter in Pine Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hoggard and Luther Hollamon were business visitors in Little Rock Wednesday.

Chocolate Milk Blamed in Shortage

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas school pupils have literally "drank dry" the state Department of Education's mild reimbursement fund—and a special appeal has been made for supplemental federal grants to pay bills.

The cause? Chocolate milk. The federal government based present allocations on consumption of milk in previous years. During the last school year, 1962-63, $692,314 in federal money was sent to Arkansas school districts, at four cents a half-pint allocation.

But that was before chocolate milk was introduced on a one-year test basis.

In the September - December period this year, $560,160 was distributed to the districts, and an emergency supplement of $210,000 was made in October. December and January bills remain unpaid.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A low pressure area brought widespread rain to Arkansas today, preceding a cool front that will move eastward across the state bringing drier air by night.

The Weather Bureau said sunshine will bring higher temperatures Saturday.

Some representative rainfall amounts during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today were: Little Rock .52, Fayetteville .39, Texarkana .47, El Dorado .19, Pine Bluff .27, Conway .58, Arkadelphia .40 and Amity in Clark County .76.

Highs Thursday were in the 50s and overnight lows in the upper 30s to mid 40s.

The five-day outlook calls for temperatures about five degrees above normal, with rain of one-fourth inch or less in west Arkansas and a half inch elsewhere.

The rains reduced the forest fire danger and state Forester Fred Lang said today that conditions should remain good for at least a couple of days.

Before the rains came, rangers battled 17 fires on 317 acres Thursday. The hardest hit area was around Stamps, where two fires destroyed 125 acres.

DOROTHY DIX

WHEN TO LET GO

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: My husband and I are in a quandary. We've been married 20 years, have a son 19 and a lovely daughter just 18. As a family we've been happy-go-lucky, closely knit and loving one another. Up to this dreadful year our daughter confided in me.

It all started when she fell in love with a no-good. We tried every way we could to break up this ill-fated romance. They were so opposite in everything—she all innocence and youth, he old and sophisticated beyond his years. He had been married once and the marriage was annulled. Ten days ago she gave birth to his son.

Since she was a minor, we had the father jailed and he is now on a juvenile honor farm having been convicted once before of a similar offense with another girl. The problem is our daughter still loves him and he wants the baby to bear his name and insists he will marry our daughter when he is released.

leaved in June. I would prevent the marriage but, my daughter now 18, is of legal age to do as she sees fit.

In vain we plead with her to give him up and make plans for a better life for herself and her son. Our hearts are full of love for both of them. I hate to see her hurt again. Whatever can I do? —Feeling Upside Down.

Dear Feeling: There comes a time in life when, having done all we can, we must let go. This time has now come to you. Let our daughter work out her own destiny—it may not be as tragic as you fear.

Having warned her of the consequences you can do no more. She alone is responsible for her present plight. Give her character a chance to develop by telling her this is her problem and she will have to sink or swim—alone. That sounds harsh but it isn't, for she must realize by now that whatever happens she still has your love.

Who knows, your love for her and her love for the father of her child could give her the strength to inspire him to a better life. Have faith! Love can work miracles. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Ten Commandments for Happiness." Read it to your daughter.

Dear Helen: There is a sex pervert in my neighborhood. Whenever I look out the window I see somebody looking in. What should I do? I am a school teacher and live a clean, God-fearing life. Something must be done about such marauders. What do you suggest? I have talked this over with my Bishop and he suggested prayer. —Desperate.

Dear Desperate: The Lord helps those who help themselves. Combine prayer with action. Alert the police about this Peeping Tom.

Dear Helen: Bedtime love is a duty, not a pleasure to me yet I love my husband very much. We married when he was 21 and I 17 and still have no children. Maybe this all dates back to the fact that there was always an emotional tension between me and my mother. She has worked ever since I was 10 years old and I never felt really wanted. What's the answer? —Truly Desperate.

Dear Truly: Inarticulateness can be a curse. Force yourself to talk out these problems with your husband — and mother. Pent-up emotion may be their problem too. Once the flood-gates are opened the waters will clear. What you three need is more togetherness.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CHEVY II by Chevrolet

big new V8 power
big new self-adjusting brakes

You don't need a big car to get big performance. Not any more. You'll quickly see why when you check the '64 Chevy II. There are two new higher performance optional extra-cost engines for you to pick from. One is Chevrolet's strapping 195-hp Turbo-Fire V8. The other is a new chrome-trimmed 155-hp Turbo-Thrift Six.

If you've got a mountain to climb or a truck to pass, these are the engines that can leave either one safely behind you. In fact, this new Chevy II packs a wallop everywhere but in your wallet.

New brakes match this power, too. Bigger, to dissipate heat faster. Self-adjusting, to save you money. Other easy-care features include Delcotron generator and a fully aluminum muffler.

Chevy II is smartly styled outside, comfortable inside. There are a lot of models to choose from. A lot of extra-cost accessories to customize it just about any way you'd like. And a whole lot of fun to look forward to. At a very low cost. Test drive Chevy II at your Chevrolet dealer's soon. You'll like it!

Bobcats Back in Dist. Play on Home Court

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sportswriter

A top-heavy schedule of games for the HHS teams begins tonight with two home games, and two on the road.

Due to illness of team members Bodcaw will be unable to play here tonight as scheduled, Coach Billy Mitchell announced.

In Jones Field House, the Senior Girls play Bodcaw at 7:00, to be followed at 8:00 by the main attraction of the evening, a match between the Hope "B" Boys and the Bodcaw Senior Boys. The Junior Girls will not hold their scheduled match.

Meanwhile, the Bobcats go down to Fairview to do battle with the Cardinals, who share the bottom rung of the 4AA ladder with Crossett. The Juniors also head into loop play, this time shooting for their fifth win in a row for the District.

Saturday night the Cats take to the home court again to do battle with their most distant conference neighbors, the Eagles of Crossett. The Bobkittens will be featured in the warm-up play.

Porkers Take on Baylor Saturday

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Arkansas, with a 2-1 Southwest Conference record, battles Baylor's Bears Saturday in a resumption of conference basketball.

The Bears are without a win after three league chances. The game marks the end of the mid-term break for conference play, although both teams have played one non-conference game since the rest period.

Ronnie Monks, a 6-foot-6 junior college transfer from Louisville, Ky., strengthens Baylor's chances to break into the win column in SWC play.

Monks, Spencer Carlson (6-foot-6) and Winston Moore (6-foot-6) give the Bears a decided advantage on the backboards.

Jim Jay has come along with 27 points in the last two games, but Jim Magness (17.7), Ricky Sugg (15.7) and Warren Vogel (10.3) lead the Razorbacks in scoring in conference games.

Arkansas has a 5-7 record for the season, to 5-8 for Baylor.

New York Is Heading to the Playoff

BOSTON (AP)—New York is racing headlong toward a Stanley Cup playoff berth on the flying skates of its "French Line"—Camille Henry, Phillipe Goyette and Rodrigue Gilbert.

There's a goaltender named Jacques Plante playing a major role in this tremendous Ranger National Hockey League surge, too.

The foursome combined for a 3-1 victory over Boston Thursday night which hauled New York to within a single point of idle fourth place Detroit.

New York has a 9-3-1 record in its last 13 games.

The Goyette-Henry-Gilbert line is now one of the league's top scoring units with 58 goals and 133 points.

Henry rallied the Rangers from a 1-0 deficit by scoring his 22nd and 23rd goals of the season, then he and Gilbert both helped Goyette get his 16th. Gilbert had assists on all three.

Plante, with solid support from a hard-hitting defense, made 33 saves in the triumph and was unbeatable after Murray Oliver got one shot past him at 13:32 of the first period.

The contest marked the only NHL action Thursday night.

Americans Still Looking for a Medal

By TED SMITS

Associated Press Sports Editor

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) —The Soviet Union's fantastic Lidia Skoblikova completed a gold medal double by winning the women's 1,500-meter speed skating event in record time today, while a pair of darkhorse Britons stole the thunder from Italy's favored bobsledders in the ninth Winter Olympic Games.

Anthony Nash and Robin Dixon, daredevils from the British Isles, shot their sled down the icy 1½ chute in two record runs and bolted ahead of Italy's favored Sergio Zardini and world champion Eugenio Monti after the first two of four two-man bobsled runs.

The final two runs are scheduled Saturday, with the championship to be decided on the total times of the four.

It was another bleak day for the medal-less Americans.

The Yanks failed to make a serious challenge in the bobsled competition, couldn't pick up ground on Holland's Sjoukje Dijkstra in the women's figure skating.

The only encouraging development for Uncle Sam saw Peggy Fleming, the 15-year-old U.S. women's figure skating champion from Pasadena, Calif., rise from eighth to sixth on the third of five compulsory figures.

I see can hold her own in the final two figures, she becomes a definite medal threat.

The U.S. bobsled teams were fifth and sixth at the halfway point of the bobsled races, but there appeared little hope of their overtaking the leaders.

The sled driven by Charles McDonald, Malone, N.Y., electrical contractor, and braked by Charles Pandolph, Saranac Lake N.Y., restaurateur, was fifth. In sixth place came the sled of lumberman Larry McKillip and salesman James Lamy, both of Saranac Lake.

There was a moment of alarm in the American camp when Janice Smith, 18-year-old Rochester, N.Y., schoolgirl, dived into a snow bank after finishing her race in 1,500-meter speed skating.

She was carried to the dressing room on a stretcher where later it was found she was not injured.

Janice finished 24th in the field of 30 with a time of 2 minutes, 37.8 seconds. Judith Morstein of Butte, Mont., made the best showing, finishing 15th in 2:33.3. Marie Lawler of Minneapolis was 19th in 2:34.9.

Mrs. Skoblikova, blonde, 24-year-old Siberian school teacher, skated the metric mile — 120 yards less than a mile—in 2 minutes, 22.6 seconds, taking almost three seconds off the old mark set in the Games at Squaw Valley, Calif., four years ago.

She previously had won the 500 in 45 flat, also an Olympic record.

The gold medal was the third picked up in three days by the powerful Russian squad, which also has one silver and three bronze medals. No other country has more than two medals.

The British sledgers, Nash and Dixon, plummeted down the 1,640-yard bobsled run in 1 minute, 5.53 seconds on their first try and followed this with a dazzling 1:05.10 clocking for 2:10.63.

Italy's No. 2 sled of Zardini and Romano Bonagura was second with runs of 1:05.15 and 1:05.13 for 2:10.76, and then came the fabulous mountain man, Eugenio Monti, winner of eight world championships, with 1:05.94 and 1:04.90 for 2:10.84.

The No. 1 U.S. sled, piloted by McDonald, registered 1:05.97 and 1:05.85 for 2:11.82, and fifth place. The No. 2 sled, with McKillip at the controls, did 1:06.17 and 1:06.34 for 2:12.51.

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) —It is crystal clear today that Russia is on the way to dominating the ninth Winter Olympics even more decisively than it did the last time around.

The Soviets scored a clean sweep of the first three places in the ladies' 500 meter speed skating. Last time Russia got only second place.

Russia has the gold medal for figure skating pairs. Last time sixth place was the best the Russians did.

Russia took third in the men's 30 kilometer cross country ski race, just as it did in 1960, and failed to do anything in the men's downhill, just as it did before.

All this adds up to two gold medals, one silver, and two bronze for the Russians in two days of competition—compared to one silver and one bronze at the same stage in 1960.

Newly crowned Olympic champions are Egon Zimmermann, Austria, men's downhill, 2:18.16, a course record (there are no Olympic or world records in ski races because each course varies); Lidia Skoblikova, Russia, women's 500 meter speed skating, :45.0, an Olympic record; and Eero Maetynanta, Finland, men's 30 kilometer cross country skiing, 1:30:50.7, fastest time ever in international competition. Oleg Protopopov and Ludmila Belousova won the pairs figure skating for Russia on opening day.

Thursday's day of glory for Russia was one of bitter disap-

Drake Could Snatch Title From Wichita

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Say, wouldn't it be something if the Drake Bulldogs snatched the championship of the Missouri Valley Conference out of the mouth of the Wichita Wheatshockers?

Far-fetched? Not if you consider that while Wichita whipped Cincinnati 62-59 Thursday night in college basketball's outstanding game of the night the Bulldogs were quietly waiting in the wings hoping no one pointment for the United States. The United States had high hopes for its downhill skiers, but Ni Orsi's 14th place was the best the Americans did. The 19-year-old lad from Stockton, Calif., skidded off the ideal line at the first left turn, swung too wide, and was thrown out of line to the next gate.

Jeanne Ashworth of Lake Placid, N.Y., and Janice Smith, of Rochester, N.Y., who had looked strong in pre-Olympic tests, managed to tie for fourth place in the women's 500 meter speed skating at :46.2, although they hoped for better.

Two more medals were at stake today, in the ladies' 1,500 meter speed skating and in the special Nordic ski jumping on a 70-meter hill.

would notice their six-game winning streak and 12-3 season record.

If the Bulldogs keep going the way they have and win the MVC title it would be one of the most stunning reversals in collegiate annals. Last year the Bulldogs finished last in the MVC with a 3-9 league mark and 11-14 over-all.

Wichita, now 7-0 in the MVC, beat Drake 67-49 on Jan. 4, but since then the Bulldogs, led by Gene Bogash of Winamac, Ind., have defeated Purdue, Bradley, New Mexico State, Cincinnati, Air Force and Iowa State.

While the Bulldogs, currently 2-1 in the MVC, were keeping their fingers crossed hoping for a Wichita defeat, the Wheatshockers capitalized on a break to turn back Cincinnati.

A turnout of 10,700 at Wichita saw the Wheatshockers turn apparent defeat into victory in the last 14 seconds. Down 59-55, a layup by Wichita's Dave Stallworth cut the deficit to one point. Then came the big break for Wichita.

Cincinnati put the ball in play, but the Bearcat player who took the pass-in accidentally stepped out of bounds. Wichita took possession and Kelly Pete sneaked in a layup to put the Shockers ahead 60-59. Stallworth, the game's high scorer with 24 points, added the final two points on free throws at the very end.

The closing second heroics upped the record of the nationally seventh-ranked Shockers to 15-3 and wiped out the last faint hopes the Bearcats had of winning their seventh straight MVC

Fighter of the Month Picked

NEW YORK (AP) — Pone Kingpetch, the durable Thai who won the world flyweight title for the third time last week, was named the fighter-of-the-month for January by Ring magazine today.

Kingpetch outpointed Japan's Hiroyuki Ebihara Jan. 23. Ebihara dropped to the leading challenger's position.

In the latest ratings, Ring advanced Argentina's Gregorio Peralta from fifth to third among the lightweightweights.

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) —

It is crystal clear today that Russia is on the way to dominating the ninth Winter Olympics even more decisively than it did the last time around.

The Soviets scored a clean sweep of the first three places in the ladies' 500 meter speed skating. Last time Russia got
